

The parties bind themselves to reach an amiable composition agreement and one that holds the other harmless before any third party; with respect to the concept of intellectual property derived from the purpose of this agreement.

VII.

The term of this agreement will be four years, starting on the day it is signed.

This agreement may be early terminated in the event both parties so determine; or one of the parties notifies the other in writing thirty (30) calendar days in advance. Ongoing activities will be continued until they are completed.

VIII.

“THE PARTIES” agree that any amendment or change to the terms and conditions agreed upon shall be stipulated in writing.

IX.

This agreement is the result of good faith but, in the event any disputes arise over doubts or discrepancies, contents or interpretation; or in the face of any issue derived from enforcement thereof, the universities assume the express commitment to reconcile their differences through amiable composition to solve the problem through mutual agreement by the parties.

When the document is not signed on the same date and in the same place, it will be understood that the last date will be considered the definitive date of the agreement.

This agreement is signed in duplicate, with the same contents and value, on _____, 2016.

BY “UAM”

SALVADOR VEGA Y LEÓN, PhD
GENERAL DEAN

BY “VNU”

CELESTINO GARCÍA RODRÍGUEZ ACADEMIC DIRECTOR

LEGAL REVIEW

CARLOS REYNOSO CASTILLO, PhD
GENERAL COUNSEL

LEGAL REVIEW

RAMÓN GUZMÁN MORENO, PhD
GENERAL DIRECTOR

